Successful Office Lease in Executive Center II at 71st & Yale

Legacy Commercial Property Advisors is proud to announce the successful lease of 1,578 SF of office space at Executive Center II in Tulsa, Oklahoma. The transaction secures a new home for Aaron Massey of Sidecar Asset Management—one of Tulsa’s premier financial advisory professionals—as he continues to grow his firm’s presence and reach.

Seated at the intersection of 71st and Yale, Sidecar’s new offices are perfect for their growing brand: high visibility, plenty of parking, great ease of access to major roadways, and just about any service or service provider a flourishing business would need.

Legacy’s own Jordan Helmerich represented the tenant in this transaction, ensuring the space offered everything that Sidecar envisioned for their ideal office. Matt Surrett of Oil Capital Real Estate Services represented the landlord and worked collaboratively with Jordan to bring the win-win deal to the finish line.

We’re glad to see Sidecar settle into their new space and wish Aaron and his team continued success as they write the next chapter of their firm’s growth in their new home!
